Fire trucks line Saxer Avenue in front of the Springfield Fire Co. during their Fire Prevention Week Open House on Friday.

The Springfield Fire Co., like most in Delaware County, has been busy during the last week teaching the importance of fire prevention to area schools and organizations as part of the National Fire Prevention Week.

On Friday evening, they held an open house and invited the public to stop at the station on Saxer Avenue to see the trucks, learn how to prevent fires and how to escape safely from their home should one occur.

Springfield was joined by a number of area departments including Media, Swarthmore, Morton-Rutledge and Clifton Heights. Springfield Ambulance Corps, the Delaware County Emergency Response Team and county communications van were also on display.
